A Message from the Chairman

Once again, we take pleasure in welcoming all our friends to our 45th production, "The Pajama Game". In accordance with our "two shows a year" policy we have been busy almost continuously since last September and we hope you will be ready to agree, when the final curtain falls, that all this activity has been worth while.

We are always looking for new members and anyone who has any pretensions to singing, dancing or acting will be more than welcome — the Hon. Secretary would like to hear from you. If your talents do not lie in these directions we would be pleased to enrol you as a Vice-President.
